

Move-Out Condition Report

Compare against the move-in report line by line. Normal wear is not damage; note the difference in writing.

UNIT / ADDRESS _____

MOVE-OUT DATE _____

| ROOM / AREA | CONDITION AT MOVE-IN | CONDITION NOW | WEAR OR DAMAGE? | ESTIMATED COST |
|-------------|----------------------|---------------|-----------------|----------------|
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |
|             |                      |               |                 |                |

Security-deposit rules, deadlines and itemization requirements vary by state and city. Check your own before you withhold anything. This form is a record, not legal advice.

PROPERTY _____

COMPLETED BY _____

DATE _____